MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Members of the Macomb County Board of Commissioners, Macomb County Planning and Economic Development (PED), and other government officials made the first of the 2010 Small Business Outreach stops at Kropp Woodworking, Inc., on Monday.

The outreach focuses on visiting local businesses in Macomb County and hearing their concerns as well as success stories and business practices.

Commission Chair Paul Gielghem, and commissioners Ed Bruley, Kathy Vosburg, Robert Mijac, David Flynn joined PED Executive Director Stephen Cassin, Rep. Kim Meltzer, and representative to Congressman Sander Levin, Keith Nelson, to talk with business owners Paul and Laura Kropp about growing and sustaining their small business in tough economic times.

Paul Kropp, who started his Mount Clemens business six years ago, provided a tour of the facility and shared his business philosophy with the group. His business provides custom cabinetry to those in the design trade, and uses green products and production methods, such as urban lumber and natural finishes.

The next Small Business Outreach is scheduled for April 2010.
